

I want the FCC to serve the public interest, rather than private interests. I strongly oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation, as I do not believe that this would benefit the public. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.